

Ugly?

Balers aren't built to be beautiful.

Some think a baler as the ultimate dumpster just not quite as ugly. We don't. The Balemaster brand brings a level of reliability, speed and automation to your baling operation that reduces baling and transport costs. And there's nothing ugly about more margin for you.

Haire Group Hosts Annual Customer Appreciation Dinner

As has become its annual custom, Merrillville, Indiana based Haire Group hosted a customer appreciation dinner for more than 25 customers, employees, industry friends and invited guests on the evening of Wednesday, April 13, at Morton's Steakhouse in Palm Desert, California.

"This is our small way of thanking everyone for their business, their support and their friendship," said Jeff Quinn, Vice President of Operations at Haire Group. "AICC meetings always provide the opportunity to host such gatherings and this was no exception."
